Suppose you were a true believer. Suppose you had faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ. Suppose you believed in the virgin birth of Jesus Christ, the substitutionary death of Jesus Christ, his bodily resurrection, his ascension into heaven, his bodily presence in the Eucharist, his coming again in glory, his Second Coming, and his personal return. Suppose you believed in the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, in the rapture, and in the end of the world. If so, then you are not afraid of death. You do not live in mortal fear of the consequences of your sin, but you do live in mortal fear of the day of judgment. For Christ said, "Come, my people; enter thou into the LORD'S Presence." You were told: "Fear not, I am the First and the Last, and the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore, and I have the keys of death and hell."
